We are in the process of reviewing your application for financial assistance for the 2010-2011 academic year. In order for us to continue to process your financial aid, it will be necessary for you to provide additional information.

On the FAFSA, your parents reported a net worth of investments of $ _____; however, dividend income of $ _____ was reported on your parents' 2009 Federal Income Tax Return. This dividend income indicates a larger investment than was originally reported. Investments include trust funds, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds, other securities, installment and land sale contracts, commodities, precious and strategic metals, etc.

If the investment amount reported on the FAFSA was incorrect, please list below the value of the investments as of the date you filed the FAFSA.

NET WORTH OF INVESTMENTS AS OF: ____/____/____ $ _____

If the investment amount reported on the FAFSA was correct, please explain the discrepancy on the lines below between the amount your parents received in dividends in 2009 and the amount your parents had in investments when you filed the FAFSA.

Please be aware that we cannot process your application for financial assistance until you submit this information.

By signing this form, I affirm that all information on this form and any attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. If requested, I agree to provide documentation to support the information I have provided on this form. I understand that any false statements or misrepresentation may be cause for denial, reduction, withdrawal, and/or repayment of financial aid, and I may be subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both, under provisions of the United States Criminal Code.
