

Humanitarian Leadership

In partnership with Convoy of Hope Education Network, North Central University's Humanitarian Leadership major prepares you for leadership and service in both humanitarian crisis and relief organizations, as well as a variety of non-profit settings.

Students will be equipped with the knowledge and skills for creating and serving in nonprofit organizations, or ministering to youth, children, and refugees in crisis. Graduates with this degree will also be trained in conflict resolution and negotiation.

This program also includes experience in an international or stateside practicum to firmly root a biblical and theological understanding of compassion to those struggling in humanitarian crisis and relief situations.

Jobs that you can get with a Humanitarian Leadership degree:

- » Humanitarian relief and development professional
- » Non-profit organization founder
- » Non-profit organization administrator/leadership
- » Youth ministry
- » Family ministry
- » Liaison for refugees and crisis situations
