

Your FAFSA was selected for a review process called "Verification." The Department of Education requires the Financial Aid Office to collect additional information before we can create your financial aid package. If there are differences between your FAFSA information, this worksheet, and/or other financial documents, the Financial Aid Office may need to make corrections to the information on your FAFSA. If you have any questions about verification, please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Important Verification Information

- Identifying who is considered a parent on the FAFSA

The following people DO NOT qualify as your parents unless they have adopted you:

- Stepparent who is NOT currently married to your parent
- Grandparents
- Foster parents
- Legal guardians
- Older brothers or sisters
- Aunts or uncles

If you are still unsure who to report as a parent on your FAFSA, please visit or call:

Online:

- IRS Data Retrieval Tool Information

Reasons you would not be eligible for the IRS Direct Data Exchange:

- The student/parent is married, and either the student/parent or his/her spouse filed as Married Filing Separately.
- The student/parent is married, and either the student/parent or his/her spouse filed as Head of Household.
- The parents' marital status is "Unmarried and both legal parents living together."
- The student/parent filed a Puerto Rican foreign tax return.

If you are unable to use the IRS Direct Data Exchange, please see the next page for directions to request a tax return transcript.

How to use the IRS Direct Data Exchange:

1. If you have already submitted a FAFSA and are going back in to use the Direct Data Exchange, log back into your already submitted FAFSA using your FSA ID and password. Click "Make a Correction" and go to the "Financial Information" section.
2. There will be a series of questions:
  - a. For 2023, have you completed your IRS income tax return or another tax return? Select: Already Completed.
  - b. What income tax return did you file for 2023? Select: IRS Form 1040
  - c. For 2023, what is your tax filing status according to your tax return? Select how you filed.
  - d. The FAFSA should present an option to transfer your tax information with the Direct Data Exchange. Click "Proceed to IRS."
3. Click "Proceed to IRS" again to connect to the IRS website.
4. On the IRS website, enter the requested information EXACTLY as it appears on your 2023 tax return. If you get an error that there's no match, double check your information, including the exact mailing address on your return. Click "Submit."
5. Click "Transfer my tax information into the FAFSA," and then click "Transfer Now."
6. If you made a correction on an already submitted FAFSA, make sure to resubmit your FAFSA at the end.

Please allow 2-3 days for the Financial Aid Office to receive your submitted or resubmitted FAFSA. If you use the IRS Direct Data Exchange, you will not need to request an IRS tax return transcript.
